

Yanamala Nagarjuna <nagarjuna.yanamala@gmail.com>

X Receipt of Correspondence

X <twitter-legal@x.com>

Sun, 13 Sep at 1:15 PM

To: Nagarjuna Yadav <nagarjuna.yanamala@gmail.com>

Hello @ImYanamala,

We are writing to follow up on our earlier email regarding a request that we received from a law enforcement agency pertaining to your account.

X received a request from the Andhra Pradesh Police regarding your X account that claims the following content violates Indian law:

@ImYanamala

<https://twitter.com/ImYanamala/status/2081350293732917567>

<https://twitter.com/ImYanamala/status/2080959051316502776>

<https://twitter.com/ImYanamala/status/2081023638862745805>

The request was submitted from guntururbansp-ap@gov.in. Our prior email inadvertently stated that the request was from "FBI" because the individual wrote "FBI" as the sender organization when submitting the request.

However, this request did not come from the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and it is unclear why the Andhra Pradesh Police wrote "FBI" as the sender organization.

For full transparency, we are providing the name of the law enforcement agency below:

[=]== Reporter information ==

Your full name: > A V BRAMHAM

Job title: > INSPECTOR OF POLICE

Organization: > FBI

Your email: > guntururbansp-ap@gov.in

Street address: > Guntur

City: > GUNTUR

State/Province: > Andhra Pradesh

Postal code: > 522261

Country: > IN

Phone number: > 8688831760

Fax number (optional): > [Empty]

Country where content is at issue: > IN

As X strongly believes in defending and respecting the voice of our users, it is our policy to notify our users if we receive a request from a law enforcement or a government agency to remove content from their account.

We want you to have an opportunity to take action to protect your interests. This may include seeking legal counsel and challenging the request in court, contacting relevant civil society organizations, or finding some other resolution.

Sincerely,
X Support